Dear Paul,

Re: Confidentiality Agreement for Business Reference 20583

As discussed, in order for us to release details, sales particulars and any other information relating to the business with our above quoted reference number, we require you to understand the confidential nature of this information and therefore your agreement to the following terms:

1. All information, including the name and address of the business, documentation, accounting information and all and any other information provided by us to you will be held in strict confidence and used only for the purpose of assisting you in determining whether or not you wish to acquire the business.
2. The name and address of the business, records, information or documents will not be released, divulged or discussed with any third party without our prior written authority.
3. You accept full liability for any loss or damage that we or our clients may suffer if you are found to be in breach of points 1 and 2 above.

Yours sincerely,

Barry Alldread
Sales Director
